

Association for the History of Glass Museum Visit and AGM Tuesday 12th November 2019

Join us for a private visit to the Petrie Museum of Egyptian Archaeology, University College London, a world-renowned collection of Egyptian and Sudanese archaeology, with a fascinating selection of glass objects and vessels from Ancient Egypt through to the Islamic period.

©The Petrie Museum of Egyptian Archaeology UCL

Members of the Association will have the opportunity to view, discuss and handle glass objects and learn about the history of the collection. The visit is strictly limited to 15 people and the cost will be £10 per person. Please book early to secure a place. The visit will take place in the morning from 10 a.m. with the AGM (open and free to all members) following at the British Museum at 2 p.m. There will be a break for lunch during which members can take the opportunity to view the Egyptian glass objects on display in the British Museum.

Members may also be interested in attending the exhibition Tutankhamun: Treasures of the Golden Pharaoh at the Saatchi Gallery (in Chelsea) after the AGM. For details see <https://tutankhamun-london.com/>. Tickets are £26.95 or £24 (concessions) for timed entries. Last entry is 16:30.

Please contact the Honorary Secretary, Sally Cottam, to reserve a place on the visit to the Petrie Museum and for details of how to pay, via email ahgstudydays@gmail.com